

PRESS RELEASE

Radius Travel welcomes ALTOUR to its global agency network bringing $2 billion in sales leverage

Bethesda, Maryland – September 8th, 2015: Radius Travel today announced that ALTOUR, one of the world’s largest independent travel agencies with sales in excess of $2 billion, has joined the Radius network. This brings Radius to 80 member agencies that service 85 countries worldwide.

ALTOUR’s global headquarters is in New York City with wholly-owned offices in Los Angeles, Paris and London. In addition to its focus on corporate travel, the company also services the entertainment sector. ALTOUR’s Meetings and Incentives division will be an additional asset the company brings to the Radius network. ALTOUR’s Radius membership will significantly expand ALTOUR’s global footprint and ability to serve its clients’ needs.

“We are excited to welcome ALTOUR to the Radius network. Radius offers ALTOUR access to the world’s leading travel management network and to our strong suite of global services and products to serve multinational customers,” said Shannon Hyland, Radius Travel President and CEO. “Adding an outstanding agency like ALTOUR to our network is another indication of our momentum in the market, and we look forward to a highly successful partnership.”

Alexandre Chemla, Founder and President of ALTOUR states “Through our Radius membership, ALTOUR will harness the very best local knowledge and market expertise to offer our customers the reassurance of having leading agencies ‘on the ground’ in all of their markets. Our customers will also have access to global technology and reporting and to the Radius Global Hotel Program, with great rates from leading brands at over 37,000 properties across 160 countries. The program will complement the ALTOUR Hotel Collection that offers exclusive amenities at over 1,100 of the finest properties across the globe. We are pleased to partner with Radius Travel to ensure we deliver outstanding service and value to our multinational customers.
